ADDITIONAL REQUIREMENTS (AFTER ENROLLMENT)

You will be prompted early in Phase I to provide the balance of the enrollment documentation requirements. In any event, all requirements must be completed by the end of Phase I

1. A copy of the highest diploma, certificate or degree earned and related transcript.
2. A current resume' including any background in counseling or areas of interest in counseling and a recent photo.
3. Proof of Ordination or Minister's License in the form of a photocopy or official letter. (If applicable).
4. Three reference forms (provided by the N.C.C.A. with the first course).
5. A letter of reference from your pastor or an elder in your church.
6. Other documentation, as needed.

NOTE: We will not recommend anyone for certification or license whose enrollment submission is not complete. All licensing candidates are subject to a National background check by the N.C.C.A.

REFUND POLICY

New Purpose is more than fair to the candidate who enrolls in the program and then, for some reason, needs to discontinue his or her candidacy. We do not believe that an individual should be charged for a service or for training not received. Therefore, we exceed normal standards with regard to fairness of our students as outlined.

Enrollment and/or 1st course funds will be totally refunded if the applicant is not admitted into the training program by the Evaluation Committee. However, once accepted as a candidate, the enrollment fee is non-refundable.

If a course is returned to New Purpose in good (resale) condition within fifteen (15) days of the date it was shipped, the entire tuition for the course, less a $25 restocking fee will be refunded within thirty (30) days from receipt of the returned course materials.
